saying that Doan's Kidney Pilis did me a vast amount of good. For several months other distressing symptoms of kidney complaint which I need not mention. I had Proceedings in the trial of Miss Birdle Cahn, who is accused of mailing scurrilous were cut short yesterday afternoon by the illness of United States District Attorney Edward A. Rozier, who, suffering from the intense humidity that prevailed in the courtroom, asked for an adjournment. Judge Marshall dismissed court until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Inspector Reid, who was called to testify Friday afternoon, occupied the witness stand all morning, detailing the collection of evidence upon which the prosecution relies to obtain a conviction. He said that in sympathetic ink on stamps furnished Miss Cahn by Inspector Sullivan was revealed on the stamps on three of the scurrilous letters when put through a chemical process. Reid also detailed the dements of the days when Miss Cahn was to have mailed letters in the box at West Pine boulevard and Vandeventer avenue. He said that out of a large number of engagements thus made only ten letters were mailed by Miss Cahn. The letters bearing the marked stamps were offered as evidence by Attorney Rozier, subject to a future ruling by Judge Marshail. Reid was closely questioned concerning

The Associated Press learns that agents of the Panama company have not approached the British Government, but if the United Battes should think it advisable to complete the Panama Canal, the decision would be halled with no little satisfaction at the Porcian Office as being an easy way out of the present controversy.

However, the British officials are without any accurate knowledge of the terms offered by the Panama people, and they incline to the belief that financial and other difficulties will probably prevent the United States from acopting this solution of the affair.

PARTNER GONE, AND MONEY IS MISSING.

Chinese Merchant of New Orleans Is Arrested in New York on Charge of Theft.

DID A FLOURISHING BUSINESS.

At the Time of the Disappearance $30,000 in Cash Was Drawn From Bank-Chinese Detectives Employed.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New Orleans, La., May 18.-An officer is expected here in a day or two with Louis Loy, known to his Chinese fellow-country men as Tai Hoo, who is accused in an affi-davit filed in the Criminal Court of having stolen $30,000 belonging to the firm of which he was a member. Loy was the general manager and equally interested with his brother, Tai Chong, in the Fou-Loy-Tal Company, which did a flourishing business in drying shrimp and exporting them. Loy disappeared from New Orleans April 22, and since then his brothers and the other Chinamen of the city have raised a hue and cry for him. When Loy disappeared the books of the shrimp company also disappeared, and then Tal Chong discovered that all the firm's money, said to be about $30,000, had been drawn by Loy.

Searching for Loy.

Tai Chong at once began a search for the absconder. His lawyer knew that it would be impossible for ordinary detectives to catch the absconder, as other Chinamen would harbor and assist the fugitive, and that the $30,000 in cash would go a long way toward making him secure from arrest, so he employed a Chinese detective, Charles Lee Chung of No. 31 Pell street, New York, a shrewd Mongolian.

Lee Chung of No. 31 Pell street, New York, a shrewd Mongolian.

It was reasoned that Loy would either strike out for China by way of San Francisco or would try to get to Europe with the $30,000, so the New York Chinese detective watched the steamship booking offices, while Chinese detectives in San Francisco kept their eyes open for the absconder should be put in an appearance there.

cisco kept their eyes open for the absconder should he put in an appearance there. What made it probable that Loy would try to reach Europe was the discovery of the fact that he had recently shipped a hundred barrels of shrimp to European Chinamen without having received the money for the goods, and Chong thought Loy would draw upon these customers from some city in Europe.

Nothing was heard from the fugitive or the control of the contr

Loy would draw upon these customers from some city in Europe.

Nothing was heard from the fugitive or the search for him until Monday afternoon. Then Tai Chong got a telegram from the Chinese detective in New York that he had found and arrested Loy, and asking him to mail to the New York police an affidavit against Loy, so that the wily Chinee might be held there for an officer from this city.

Chiesse Were Thrifty.

In the meantime, the shrimp-packing concern has suspended business until Tai Chong can get an insight into the affairs of the company. He said that his brother had left absolutely nothing behind, not even a scrap of paper, to show who owed the company for shrimp shipments, but that he had left behind some of the unpaid tills due by the company, and Chong wants to know where the $30,000 is before he will undertake to say what will be the future of the company.

That the business has been profitable is the the ware the table to before he will indertake to say what will be the future of the company.

That the business has been profitable is shown by the fact that the two brothers had a bank account of $30,000 from the profits of the company. The company was started about twelve years ago by half a dosen Chinamen, as a co-operative concern. At that time Loy, Tal Chong and a third brother, Tal Ya, were interested in the business, but Tal Ya had trouble with his brothers, and a few years ago they forced him to sell out and retire. That was the cause of bad feeling between Tal Ya and Tal Chong, and a few months ago Tal Ya was arrested for a murderous assault with a pistol on his brother, Tal Chong.

Loy and Tal Chong knew that the shrimp drying and exporting business was remunerative. They were thrifty and saved their earnings, and they soon bought out all the other partners, or frose them out, and they have since conducted the business on their own account.

GOVERNORS WERE PROMINENT. Former and Present Executives at Baptist Convention.

New Orleans, La., May 18.—A remarkable feature of the Southern Baptist Convention in this city was the number of Governors and ex-Governors in attendance and their prominence in the proceedings.

Ex-Governor Northern of Georgia was re-elected president by acclamation. For vice presidents the convention elected a number of Governors, ex-Governors and an ex-candidate for the presidency of the United States.

didate for the presidency of the United States,

Ex-Governor Eagle of Arkansas was made first vice president, as was Governor Heard of Louisiana, who delivered the address of welcome, and Governor Longino of Mississippi. Joshua Levering of Baltimore was also chosen for one of the vice presidents. He was the candidate for President of the United States on the Prohibition ticket in 1896. Mr. Cranfill of Texas, who was once a candidate for the vice presidency of the United States, took an active part in the deliberations.

NO GAMBLING AT LONG BRANCH. Public Places, It Is Decided, Will

All Be Boarded Up.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, May 18.—It has been finally decided not to open any of the famous gambling-houses at Long Branch this year. This decision was reached after a thorough investigation of the law passed at the last session of the Legislature and after it was made clear that the authorities meant to enforce it strictly.

Slater's clubhouse, near the pier, has been dismantled, and the paraphernalia has been shipped to Baltimore. It is unlikely that John Daly's will open, as Daly never had a local license to sell liquors.
